

Aldventure

Live unlimited and infinite adventures, the only limit being your imagination.

France, 3 March 2022.

Lyaaaaa Games, is a one-man independent game studio, on a quest to design the games the community deserves. The studio has released AIdventure: Text adventure game with an AI. Live unlimited and infinite adventures, the only limit being your imagination. This is the ultimate local alternative to Aidungeon.

“Protect Europe from the overpopulation by enforcing the tough Law on life, a life for a birth. Or flip the table and fight the cruel plutocracy to free humanity.

Survive the zombie apocalypse, but will your humanity survive in the process?

Inherit a corrupt kingdom and survive the court's intrigues.

Survive the harsh Dark Ages in the skin of a peasant, witch or squire. Wake up within a tube in a post-apocalyptic world. Plunder on the seven seas or just help your neighbour's wife with her plumbing problems. The choice is yours.”

Community-friendly, the game lets you unleash your creativity by writing and sharing your own stories with other players. No rules, no censorship, the only limit is your imagination, not someone else's.

Features:

- Customisable - Don't like the AI? Don't like the settings? Change them!
- Memory system - The AI has both a short and long term memory.
